IPPUKU

Cooking collective Ippuku, a project of Ikuku Komiyama and Mayuko Yamamoto, return to Glasfabrik to serve an authentic Japanese-style brunch.

AUG 18

12 – 2PM
DISCUSSION
"TESLA & PAINTBALL" &
"UNFOLD"

Architect and assistant professor at the Bauhaus-university Weimar, Ludwig Geßner and his students will make a presentation on the future of the commercial area of Neu-Lindenau, which will be followed by a presentation by recently graduated architect Johanna Knigge about the unique "folded roofs" from the GDR-era found throughout the area, including the building adjacent to Glasfabrik. The presentations will be followed by a discussion.

10AM – 2PM
BRUNCH
CĂCILIA BALDSZUS &
ELISA FRUCHT

Căcilia Baldszus, known for her restaurants Project BALDON and LOBB in Berlin and her pop-up events in Mexico City, Marseille, Palma de Mallorca, Seoul and Taipei, will prepare a brunch with Glasfabrik food curator Elisa Frucht consisting of intuitive and creative yet simple and comforting dishes.

AUG 25

10AM – 6PM
SAUNA
AAA-SOUND ALCHEMY,
PROSECCO AND WELLNESS,
FLOW AND GROUND

AAA is a collective that uses contemporary music, elemental frequencies and ancient sounds to create a hypnotic, deep listening experience that enhances self-awareness. They will lead a soothing day at the Glasfabrik involving ambient music, breath work, sound healing and a sauna session hosted by Leipzig collective Prosecco & Wellness as well as massages from Flow and Ground. We recommend coming for the entire day!

10AM – 2PM
BRUNCH
TRAMI NGUYEN &
VOJTĚCH LŽIČAŘ

Trami is a Vietnamese-German artist living in Leipzig and Vojtěch is a Czech ceramicist known for his delicious desserts. They met at the Academy of Arts, Architecture and Design (UMPRUM) in Prague while studying ceramics and have a shared interest in using food in their art. They are collaborating for the first time to serve a special artistic Brunch at Glasfabrik.
